12	necessary to resolve questions of fact.
13	(d) The court shall grant the motion without conducting a hearing

10	of the conspiracy or common scheme or plan; however, a party to
11	the commission of an offense or conspirator need not be
12	designated as such in the indictment or information; or
13	(3) conspiracy is not charged and not all of the defendants are
14	charged in each count, if it is alleged in the indictment or

In all other cases the court, upon motion of the defendant or 17 the prosecutor, shall grant a severance of offenses whenever the court 18 determines that severance is appropriate to promote a fair 19 determination of the defendant's guilt or innocence of each offense 20 considering:

(1) the number of offenses charged;

(2) the complexity of the evidence to be offered; and

(3) whether the trier of fact will be able to distinguish the evidence and apply the law intelligently as to each offense.

(b) Whenever two (2) or more defendants have been joined for trial in the same indictment or information and one (1) or more defendants move for a separate trial because another defendant has made an out-of-court statement which makes reference to the moving defendant but is not admissible as evidence against him, the moving defendant, the court shall require the prosecutor to elect:
